What makes this different from other Tech positions:

We're a highly creative and user enthusiast group looking for someone who understands users and anticipates their requirements

Our group is small, yet driven so there's an emphasis on building teams and establishing key processes

Must-Have Skills:

Working experience in Node, Python, PostgreSQL, Redis, MongoDB, Elastic search, RabbitMQ, React, and CSS.

Experienced with Agile development.

Well-aware of Sanity, Hasura, Nest, Docker, and Sonarqube.

What we are looking for:

Passion for creating a highly effective technology platform for our growing global audience

Be future looking; we might be focused on immediate regulations, but need to build for the long

Focus on building high-quality and scalable products; with the user in mind.

Data-driven in how you solve problems and validate you've solved them with accuracy

Possesses strong verbal and written communication skills.
